

Prime Capital Investment Advisors

Education Consultant

Job Description

As a Prime Capital education consultant, your job is to present our Qualified Plan Advisory services to the participants of our 401k clientele. We believe that the best way to help our participants prepare for retirement is through face to face interaction. This position will require weekly travel to meet with our clients through group educational presentations and individual enrollment meetings. Topics consultants will address include:

- Retirement Savings
- Plan Enrollments
- Investment Line-ups
- Benefits of Contributions
- Budgeting
- Social Security

We will provide a consistent outline of the curriculum to be presented and allow the Consultant to customize the presentation to each client. The consultant has a tremendous impact on how Qualified Plan Advisors services our clientele and the productivity of our clients' employees. An employee who understands the importance of saving for retirement is generally less financially stressed and therefore more reliable and productive at work. Schedules and travel will be assigned according to demand. Salary plus bonuses based on client feedback and satisfaction.
