

Mader Shannon

Immediate opening for an Equity Research Assistant to work with a team providing research for the Chief Investment Strategist and Portfolio Manager of a $170mm RIA with offices on the Plaza in Kansas City. This is an excellent career opportunity for a senior or recent graduate with both a strong interest in the stock market and an interest in earning a CFA charter.

We start at 7:00 each morning. Our "trading floor" is a team-oriented professional working environment. This job is rewarding, fast paced and can be stressful.

You will be trained in Advent portfolio management accounting, Bloomberg, and various third-party research sources. An ideal candidate should be creative and enjoy problem solving. Advanced excel skills are required.

Education in Finance, Accounting, or Economics will be considered. For the right candidate, we will accommodate current undergrads working towards a degree in any of the listed disciplines.

This position offers excellent potential for advancement in responsibility and compensation.
